

10-Month-Old Calf Tops Ohio Spring Classic

An annual Ohio tradition continued its noteworthy ways on Memorial Day in Sidney, Ohio. Over the past 13 years the sale has grown to be one of the top state sales each year. In 2008, it achieved a record gross ($278,800) and the year prior it attained a record-high average.

On May 25, 2009, the Ohio Spring Classic Sale followed these impressive figures with 90 averaging $2,557.78 and by days' end the sale grossed $230,300. Forty buyers from nine states—Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Wisconsin—made purchases at this year's sale.

A 10-month-old calf from Canada commanded the top price of the sale. Maple Ridge Guapo Cameo sold for $10,000 to Eddie Harris, Cleveland, Tenn. She is a daughter of Yellow Briar Heaths Guapo and out of Potwell Regal Cameo 3F, SUP EX 91-5E in Canada. "Cameo 3F" produced three records over 19,200 lbs. milk, 980 lbs. fat and 690 lbs. protein. In 1998, she was nominated All-Canadian Junior Two-Year-Old. As a five-year-old "Cameo 3F" won her class at the Brant-Norfolk Show in 2001. The grandam, Potwell Ballot's Dawn 24C, Very Good 86 (CAN), is sired by WF/L&M Ballot-ET, JPI -92. The Grand Champion of the 1995 Expo Milk in Brazil is the third dam, Potwell Junos Belle 32A, Very Good 88 (CAN). The next dam, Potwell S G Baroness 21X, is also Very Good in Canada.

On the paternal side of "Cameo's" pedigree sits "Guapo's" dam, Vanderberg Amedeo Gorgeous, the 2007 Royal Agricultural Winter Fair Grand Champion.

"Cameo" was consigned by Pete and Michelle Stern, Drumbo, Ont.

Taking home the second high seller, Marhaven Justice Sugar-ET, was Bailee and Calla Mazzaro and Duane Cole, Williamsfield, Ohio. The trio purchased the senior two-year-old sired by Janes Primetime Justice-ET, JPI -136, for $8,000. The potential third generation Excellent calved in early March.

Her dam, Van De Sambo Swan Serenade-ET, Excellent-93%, has a 305-day record of 21,170 5.3% 1,112 3.6% 766 89DCR at 7-4. "Serenade" has four additional milking daughters with an average appraisal score of 88.5%. Two of her other daughters, who are full sisters to "Sugar," have competed well in the show ring. In 2007, Marhaven Justice Sizzle-ET, was named the Junior Reserve All American Senior Heifer Calf. She placed first in senior heifer calf class at the New York Spring Carousel Show and Spring Dairy Expo Junior Show and second at the Mid-Atlantic Regional Show. Marhaven Justice Star-ET, placed fourth at the 2008 Spring Dairy Expo as a senior yearling heifer. The next dam, Wesleys Brook Sierra Swan, Excellent-94%, is sired by Molly Brook Brass Major, JPI +20.

"Sugar" was consigned by Matt Boyce and Family, Alliance, Ohio.

Selling for the third high price of the day was Gustav Ashlyn, Excellent-90%, selected by Tanner C. May, Shelbyville, Ky. The three-year-old is sired by Piedmont MCT Gustav-ET, JPI -120 and is a fourth generation Excellent. She was fresh the end of December and due to calve again in February to Impressive Indiana, JPI -55. "Ashlyn" was the first place four-year-old at the 2009 Spring Dairy Expo Open and Junior Shows. She is out of Tiaro Remake Ashley-ET, Excellent-91%, who produced 20,930 lbs. of milk in her first lactation. The next two dams are both Excellent.

"Ashley's" maternal sister, Tiaro First Prize Amber-ET, Excellent-92%, was the Intermediate Champion and first place senior three-year-old at the 2007 Mid-Atlantic Regional Junior Show. She produced 21,390 lbs. milk, 1,245 lbs. fat and 875 lbs. protein at 3-8. Two additional sisters are appraised Excellent-90% and Very Good-89% respectively.

She was consigned by Williams Jerseys and Erin and Jody Williams, McConnelsville, Ohio.

The volume buyer of the sale was Spatz Cattle Company, Lititz, Pa., who selected eight head for $18,800.
